

Thirsty Minds

Benefit for Rainwater Harvesting at Orkeeswa Secondary School in Tanzania

IGLOO hosts a fundraising event to benefit Engineers Without Borders Portland

Sunday May 16, 2010 @ 3pm

Everett Station Lofts 625 NW Everett #102, Portland, Oregon

Learn about Sustainable Development in East Africa!

Enjoy a Sunday afternoon with Engineers Without Borders (EWB) and learn how engineers from EWB Portland are working to provide safe water and renewable power to Orkeeswa Secondary School in Tanzania.

Event Includes

- Beer and Wine
- Hors d'Oeuvres
- Silent Auction
- Maasai Jewelry and Crafts
- Video and Speaker Presentations

Discover the intricate relationship between water and education.
Support thirst and minds, and rainwater harvesting at Orkeeswa Secondary School.

Purchase Your Tickets Now!

Pre-sale: $30/person; $50 couple $35/person at the door

Click Here to purchase tickets online

Mail checks made out to "EWB-USA" with "Portland-Tanzania" in memo line to:
722 NE Prescott Street, Apt. 4
Portland, OR 97211

www.ewbportland.org/tanzania

ENGINEERS WITHOUT BORDERS-USA
PORTLAND PROFESSIONAL CHAPTER

